KTWU/KPTS Sunflower Journeys Program on September 22, 2016

News Release

Halstead, KS - The Kansas Learning Center for Health (KLCH) is pleased to announce it will be featured on the KTWU (KPTS local channel 8) Sunflower Journeys TV program on September 22, 2016 at 8pm.

Kansas' longest running local history program, KTWU's Sunflower Journeys, travels the highways to bring Kansas stories home to viewers.

The 29th season will kick off with - A Show For Kids:

The show travels to Elmdale, KS to visit Camp Wood YMCA; then they travel to Halstead, KS, to explore the Kansas Learning Center for Health; and in the Plains People segment, they meet Sarah Higgerson, the animal care supervisor at the Deanna Rose Childhood Farmstead in Lenexa, KS.

KLCH is a non-profit organization that was founded in 1965. The KLCH also offers outreach programs where KLCH instructors provide curriculum-enhancing information that is both educational and entertaining. It is our mission, "To be a premier regional resource for quality health education." For more information, visit www.learningcenter.org or call the KLCH at 316-835-2662.
